

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Mrs. Elizabeth E. Rodriguez, and I am a First-Grade teacher at M. S. Ryan Elementary. I have been employed at L.I.S.D for 26 years. I have taught Kindergarten and First Grade. It is a true privilege and honor to recommend my esteemed colleague, Vanessa Salazar. Having worked alongside Mrs. Salazar in the classroom and across various departmental initiatives at M.S. Ryan Elementary, I have witnessed firsthand her outstanding work ethic, intellectual vigor, and collaborative spirit. Mrs. Salazar represents the best of our profession and would be an exceptional addition to any department at our top-rated district, L.I.S.D.

In addition, Mrs. Salazar's approach to department and team environments is defined by intellectual rigor and thorough preparation. She possesses a deep mastery of skills and abilities needed to function in an administrative department. Mrs. Salazar demonstrates an innate ability to translate complex concepts and challenges into engaging, accessible learning experiences for her colleagues and immediate supervisors. Punctuality, responsibility, and reliability are second nature to her. Mrs. Salazar is consistently prompt, fully prepared, and dependable across all duties, meetings, commitments, and responsibilities. When unexpected challenges arise, her sharp analytical thinking and resourceful problem-solving ensure that operations, duties, and responsibilities are carried out.

As a colleague, Mrs. Salazar is the quintessential worker. She actively and energetically contributes to her department, shares innovative skills and strategies, and willingly steps up to support peers whenever needed. Her optimistic energy and open communication style elevate our entire staff, fostering an environment built on mutual respect and collaborative growth. Whether contributing to her department or colleagues, her goals or co-planning, organizing, clerical management, Mrs. Salazar leads by example with humility, honesty, hard work, and dedication.

I highly recommend Mrs. Salazar with the highest level of enthusiasm and without reservation. She brings intelligence, unwavering professionalism, and a genuine passion for team success to everything she undertakes.

Please feel free to contact me directly if you need any additional insights into her qualifications, but her extensive and exceptional resume speaks for itself.

Respectfully,

Elizabeth E. Rodriguez, M.S.Ed
